WXXI CLASSICAL MEMORIES

As we continue down FM 91.5's Memory Lane we find more great moments from our archives.

In 1975, Adventures in Good Music host Karl Haas visited the station and sat down with Simon Pontin. One of the most asked questions from our listeners was, "what is the theme music for Adventures in Good Music?" It was the second movement from Beethoven's "Pathétique" Sonata No. 8, which originally was performed live by Haas. Long-time listeners will remember that he started every show with, "Hello everyone".

In December 1975, beloved public television French Chef Julia Child visited WXXI for a special event. Pictured top left she is chatting with Simon Pontin about how she became television's first and most beloved star chef. Each episode of the 10-year series generally ended with her sitting at the table with a glass of wine and the episode's culinary creation, signing off with her signature phrase, "Bon appétit."

It was October 1976 when American composer, conductor, educator and champion of American Music Howard Hanson visited WXXI. Pictured bottom left we see him casually chatting with then Radio Manager David Dial. Howard Hanson who served 40 years as the director of the Eastman School of Music until his retirement in 1964, then became director of a newly created Institute of American Music at the University of Rochester. The Institute was established to continue Dr. Hanson's tradition for promoting the understanding and appreciation of American music through performance, publication, and recording.
